YEARBOOK COVER CONTEST

It was extremely hard to choose the cover for this year's yearbook, in fact the yearbook staff didn't sleep or eat for four days contemplating this important decision. We finally decided that Margaret Winn's was the coolest, but a sampling of the other amazing entries had to be included.

Hola Amigos

Friends... just being good buddies at Char-Lan!

Hallways.....the fabulous four.

Principal's Message

"Never give in! Never give in! Never, never, never, never - in anything great, small, large or petty - never give in except to convictions of honor and good sense."

Winston Churchill

Char-Lan is fortunate to have a yearbook to preserve the memories of the 2000-2001 academic year. I would like to take this opportunity to commend the Yearbook Committee, and the editors for their commitment, perserverence and dedication. They have worked tremendously hard, with little support and guidance in producing this treasured time piece.

As I reflect on the past year, I am reminded of our special events and assemblies. We enjoyed the festivities surrounding spirit week, winter carnival, and the sporting events we participated in. Our orientation activities, achievement awards, and special assemblies are memories well worth preserving.

In closing, I would like to extend my sincere best wishes to our graduates. May the days you spent at Char-Lan allow you to be confident, cooperative and competent in what ever you pursue.

Sincerely,
Frank Hummell
Principal

Editor's Message

Creating the 2001 yearbook has been such a challenging, yet very rewarding experience. I hope everyone enjoys this yearbook as much as I enjoyed making it. Of course, none of it could have been done without Meghan Button's co-editing, or the hard work and dedication of the yearbook staff. Therefore, I want to thank everyone who put in hours and hours of their time, energy and ideas to make the yearbook possible. No teachers were able to help make the yearbook, but thankfully the support and help of the community was enough.

We tried our best to capture all of your smiles and memories that filled Char-Lan this year, so you'll always be able to flip through these pages and remember 2001

President's Message

Well, it's hard to believe that another school year has already come and gone. I hope that as you flip through the pages of this yearbook you remember all the dances, spirit days, Gong Show, Carnival Week, door decorating (Chicken Zippers rock!) the victory of our boys in blue, and much, much more! Although we were faced with a few minor obstacles at the beginning of the school year, I am amazed with how much we were able to accomplish.

I believe that each and every person at Char-Lan pulled together to make this the BEST school year. With the endless amount of support from all the students, staff, and our principals we were able to organize activity after activity. I would like to give a few thank you's to people who definitely deserve it. First off, to all the OAC's who helped wherever they could-especially when I thought things would never work out: my 1st lady, left-hand man (high 4), right-hand women and vice-prez Doylee, Megs, Kat, Terri, The OAC Business class, Smitty, The Twinz, McGuinty, and anyone else I forgot to mention.

Also, a thanks to Candice and Garry.

I am also proud of all those students who came through, became true leaders, and ran clubs with dedication. I would also like to thank all of the teachers. Your endless support made myself and the rest of the students feel appreciated. The backbone of the entire school doesn't often get any thanks but without our 3 devoted secretaries, many things wouldn't have run smoothly. Thank you for everything. Mr. Hummell was able to adjust to his new surroundings very quickly. His constant words of encouragement were very much appreciated.

Lastly, thanks to Stephanie, Meghan and the rest of the yearbook committee. Thank you for realizing how important it is to capture high school memories in pictures. I hope you all had an amazing school year, and good luck in 2002.

(P.S. Melissa, we totally came through and Dominated)

Puran Guram,
 President of Student's Council

MMM: PPHL, Hot tub w/ JL, LT, RR, RM, 3xML, AB, and DC, prom party '00, EOSSA soccer '97, friends at school, going for a long car ride with NM to get ice cream and get in trouble. LW&T: To all the people that stay behind, have a good time and use it wisely. To my special friends, I leave my heart and soul to you (NM, AMP, AP). To "stiffler", have as much fun at this school as I did, and to Zurvachsky, something that happens at school always relates to the Simpsons.

Bill Stephens

NN: Johnny Blaze, Bad-ass-Bill, Billington Bear, The Amazing Vibrating Bildo, Billy the kid, Mustang Billy.
 Q: "You'd have to have a horse shoe up your ass to be that lucky." -Lee Stephens PP: The sound that's made when little kids rub their gloves on the frosty bus windows in the winter.
 Amb: To one day be the world's leader (it's a long shot, but hey...)
 PD: Some place warm for sure! Hell is overdoing it, maybe a parasail boat driver off the cost of the Florida Keys...
 LW&T: I leave my low attention span when it comes to homework, to any poor deserving fool who wants it.

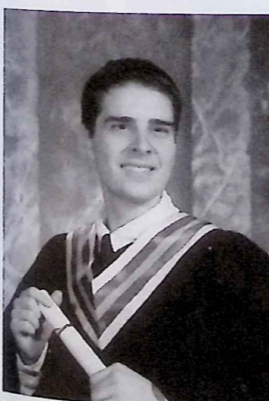

Mark Richard

NN: Marky Bear Richard, Prof. Marque.
 Q: "You only need money for what you buy with it."
 PP: The word "Sassy", and going to the bathroom (it hurts so much!)
 Amb: To be secretary general of the U.N.
 PD: Petty thief and small time activist.
 MMM: Pat's fire in the microwave, Beck - 2 turntables and a microphone, going in the tunnels under the school w/ Minty.
 LW&T: To my brother, I leave the empire. Two mi cister, I leaf mi spelin.

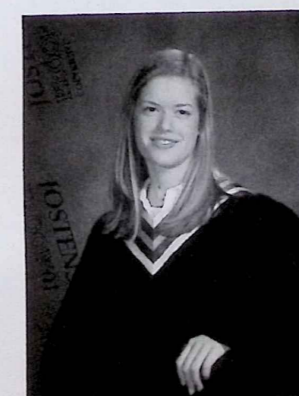

Kathy Robideau

NN: Kat, Webster, Don't-Test-Me.
 Q: "You are not your bank account. You are not the clothes you wear. You are not the contents of your wallet. You are not your grande latte. You are not the car you drive. You are not your fking khakis. You are all-singing, all-dancing crap of the world!"
 PP: Never having enough pine cones.
 Amb: To get to Neverneverland.
 MMM: Summer '97, Kingston w/ Gr.10 music, Jesse's "The Game", Woodstock Florida '00, all concerts, Highland Games, and New Year's Eve, lunchtime talks w/ girls, all time spent w/ LD, MD, MB, MR, DD, and everyone else.

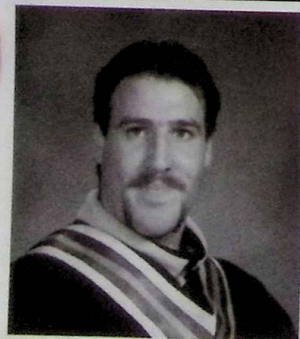

Nicholas VanSleeuwen

NN: Nick, Bank of Jew
 Q: "You can be anything you want, for any reason you want. I became a bartender, just so that I can order a "slow, comfortable screw against the wall, across the border" with a straight face. PP: Annoying minor-niners, who think they're better than us OAC's. Amb: Some drone at Nortel by day, Bartender by night.
 MMM: A collection of mishaps in shop class causing near death experiences, and Fred's bleeding fingers! LW&T: I hearby leave all my Bank of Jew accounts to those who owe me the money, I leave my humour to Mr. Johns, and I leave my ability to procrastinate and make computers to Mr. Lenny Thevenot.

Margaret Winn

NN: "margaretwinn", Marg, Mags
 Q: "Time flies like an arrow, fruit flies like a banana" -Groucho Marx
 PP: The coldness of the caf, waxy apples
 Amb: To live a worry free, rewarding life
 PD: Slipping into a catatonic trance at the age of 21, and resembling my licence photo for the rest of my life.
 MMM: Baking a cake for tech class, March Break '01 w/ Vera, the Alexandria rat, Tim Horton's w/ Terri, Homer's lasso.
 LW&T: To Douglas, I leave as much fun as one can possibly have living without sisters (watch out for those hussies!)

CARNIVAL

WEEK

WOW!!! Wasn't Carnival 2001 fantastic?!? The hockey game - where our boys in blue were victorious once again, with the cheerleaders who caused a small riot, and with Char-Lan's own slugger, Ryan Lalonde. Oh, and you can't forget Activity day - whether you hip-hopped your way through the day, skied your way down Sauver's slopes, stayed at school, or slept the day away - it was great fun!

Oh yeah, and the Gong Show!!! The show made possible by the amazing Matt Evans, the fantastic Graham Charbonneau, and our team of judges - who settled on a winner. Congratulations to Kayla Hallett! But all of these activities would not have been possible without the extreme dedication (or obsession!) of Mr. Thevenot and his amazing OAC business class. Thanks for a wonderful week guys!

Here's $500 plus worth of reasons to take YOUNG DRIVERS this year!

YOUNG DRIVERS® saves lives. That's the best reason of all to select YOUNG DRIVERS®. By teaching the secrets and skills of lifelong collision-free driving, YOUNG DRIVERS® has earned dramatically lower insurance rates for our grads, and coveted ISO 9001 registration.

Save on Insurance. Selected insurance companies are offering YOUNG DRIVERS® grads and their immediate families exclusive savings.

Save $500 to $1000 at Ford of Canada. Ford will issue a $500 to $1000 certificate good on the purchase or lease of any new Ford vehicle to YOUNG DRIVERS® grads. Certificate values range from $500 to $1000 depending on the vehicle. It can also be used by any immediate family member living in the same household.

Give YD Gift Certificates. Gift certificates for any amount can be purchased at any YOUNG DRIVERS® Centre, and make a thrilling gift for your favourite young driver-to-be!

Secret Garden was the theme at prom this year.
It was a beautiful evening of dinner, dancing, and memories.

Melissa and Mark looked like the Prince and Princess in their stunning dress and suit.

Kathy and Luc looked like a match made in heaven.

The exchange students, Jacob and Imelin looked like something from out of this world - or across the ocean.

Prom Awards

Megan Button

Megan was the Master of Ceremonies for the evening and was able to enhance an already electrified audience.

Stacy, Jenna and Calla

These three girls had the most "original" dresses and all looked absolutely amazing in them.

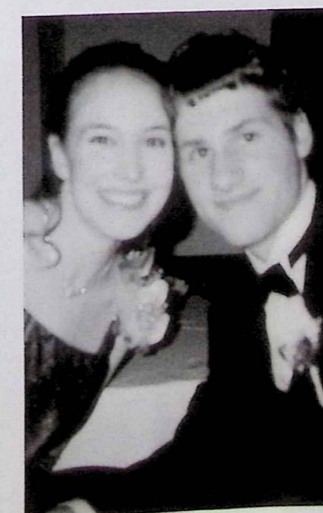

Mary MacGregor

Mary truly was the embodiment of elegance for the evening with her award winning gown.

Leigh Thompson

This was definatly the most original and creative outfit at this year's prom.

Josee, Trisha, Candice, Melissa and Nara looked like a rainbow of beauty in their colourful dresses.

Mike and Sara were another one of the gorgeous couples at prom this year.

The Fontain sisters looked beautiful as always, as well as their friends, Debbie, Sara and Kylie.

The Grade 12's girls posed with their handsome dates in this picture before prom on the sunny Friday afternoon.

...sse and Stephanie had a wonderful time at prom together and put on some perfect smiles for this picture.

Thank You

To all of the decorators and organizers who made this prom to be such a success. Most importantly, thank you all for making sure that this was a fun but safe prom. It was an evening that will never be forgotten.

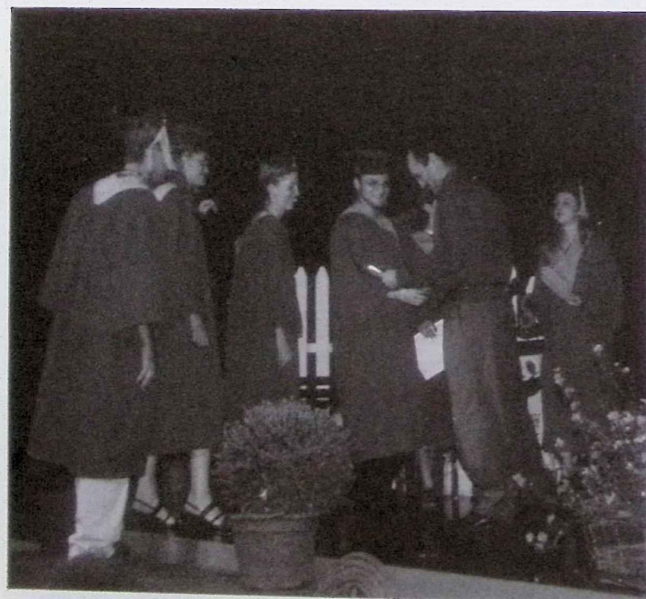

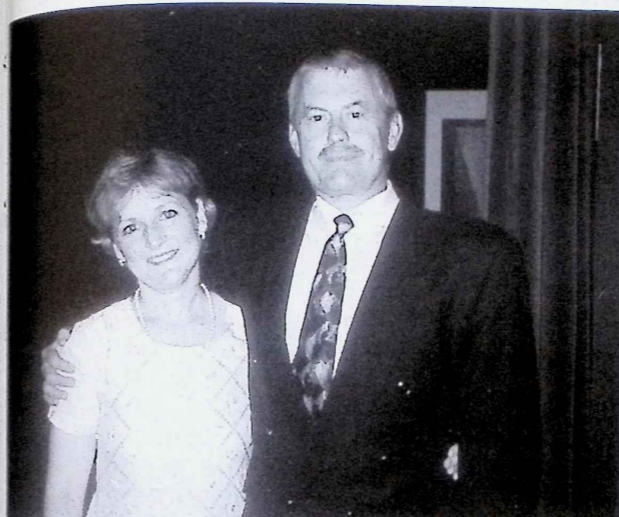

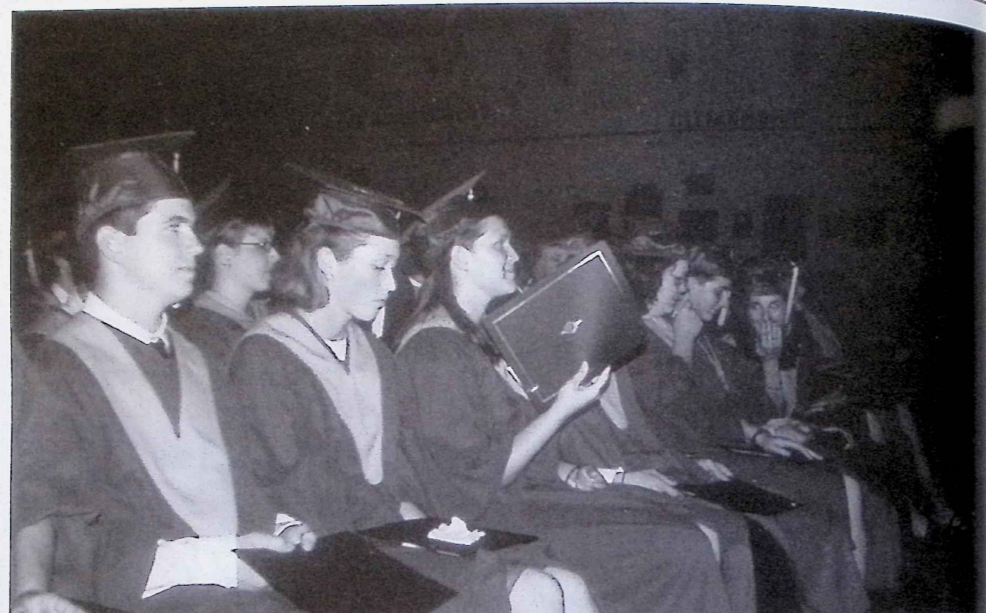

Mike and Christal were totally surprised when they were randomly picked to be the prom King and Queen. They smiled as they swept across the floor to start off the first dance of the night.

Congratulations

To the Class of 2001

Even though the heat was deadly, the students' spirits remained high as the class of 2000-2001 took their last steps as students in this school. Our MC, Mr. Blackadder, and our Valedictorian, Puran Guram were an added pleasure to the evening. Good luck graduates and may you reach all your goals in life!

Thanks to all the volunteers who helped put the evening together. Your help was greatly appreciated. A special thanks goes out to Sharon who glued, taped, and kept the evening, and the sanity of the staff, in one piece.

Valedictorian

Address

This is an excerpt from this year's Valedictorian, Puran Guram

So today we aren't only leaving with a high school diploma also with memories.

Look around you at the faces of those who have opened your heart to these past five years, as you peer to their eyes, remember the past, the good times-the laughter, the bad times-the tears, the memories you have shared and cherish these last few moments you will have together. Before you part, remember one last warm embrace, one last reassuring smile, and promises to write and keep in touch forever.

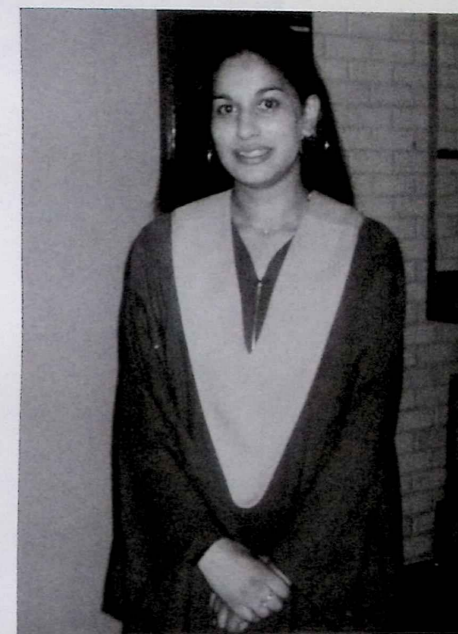

Now that as we pursue a post-secondary education, we all will be more than proud to reveal that we went to Char-Lan District High School. We're all proud to hail from the Land of Williamstown, we're proud to say that we were once Crusaders! Years here at Char-Lan have just flown by (many of you are probably saying much faster than this speech!).

And if the old saying, "High school is the best time of your life" is true, I'm glad I got to spend it at Char-Lan with all of the teachers, and all of you who are graduating today.

Saying goodbye...

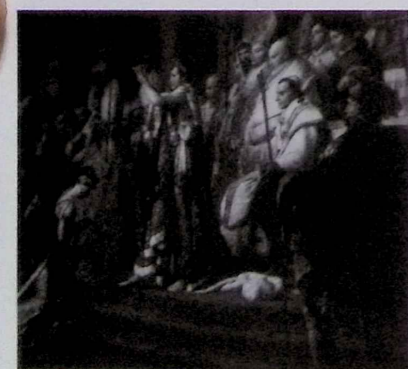

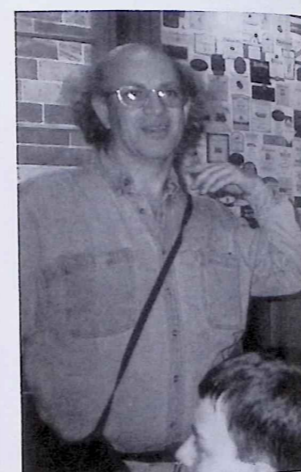

Why is it so sad? Make us remember that good times we had. Much more to say, too foolish try. It's time saying goodbye. Somehow I know we'll meet again. Not quite sure and I don't know just when. You're in my heart. So until then it's time for saying goodbye.

The class of 2001, always remember to keep an open mind, heart and soul so that your eyes can be opened to the many wonders of life. Thanks for all the memories, it's been an awesome 5 years! Congratulations, and Good Luck.

looking back at the past year

First off, I'd like to congratulate all of the students and staff at Char-Lan. You have all had a unique year that will no doubt be remembered always, and you got through it. I would like to take this opportunity to thank some of the people who helped make this yearbook possible. First off, I'd like to thank Stephanie Goom for being the Editor of the book. You did a great job Steph, and I know you will have lots of success in the future. The yearbook staff was great and the endless hours of work and dedication you all put in will live on forever in this book. I would also like to thank Mr. Thevenot and the BOA 0A0 Entrepreneurial Studies class. All of the work you put in really helped and I hope the yearbook project was a valuable experience for all of you. On a personal note, I'd like to thank Ms. Buttle, Mrs. MacMillan, Mr. Trasuk, Mr. Oathwaite and Mr. Hummell for their encouragement, advice and support. This is a great yearbook and as always, the yearbook staff will be ready next year and with a lot of luck, support and work, provide you with another chapter in the Crusader Saga.

Thanks to all of you and best of luck,

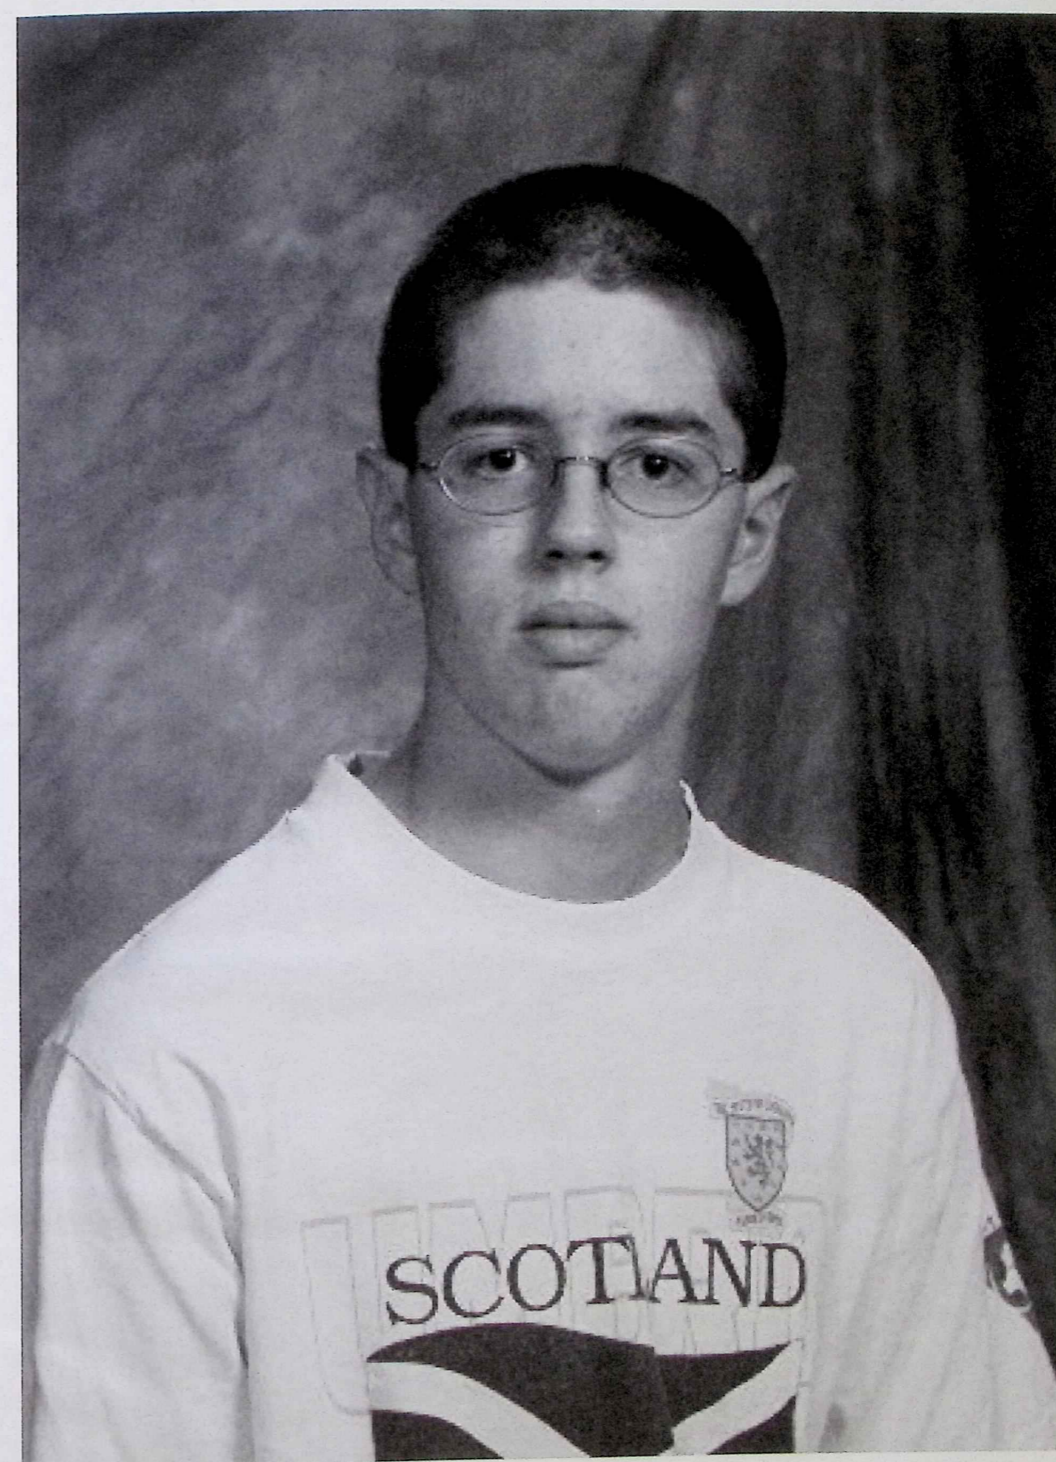

Corey Kalsi, Advisor

This Yearbook is dedicated to the memory of:

Eric Cumming

There are times in life
when tragedy strikes. It is never easy,
especially when it takes the life of a loved one. At the end of a trying school year for both staff and students, Eric was taken from us, but his memory will live on. He will never be forgotten and will always be remembered.
