I want to take this opportunity to wish all of our graduates continued success in their future endeavours. This year's edition of the Char-Lan yearbook will be a wonderful reminder of your experiences.

I look forward to working with all of our returning students in September. We will become a grade seven to grade twelve secondary school and this will bring some very exciting changes for the new year.

To everyone, I wish you a wonderful and safe summer holiday. Many thanks to the yearbook staff for your efforts in putting the book together!

This yearbook contains memories of your past.

Look at it in the years to come and remember where you came from. Think of the challenges that you faced and those that you overcame.

Char-Lan has a long history of setting students on the right path for successful futures. I wish you all the best and I am very honoured to be a small part of your growth.

ME₂WE

Between travelling, dancing and cheering somehow these crusaders still managed to come home and do some more.

This year Char-Lan's Free the Children chapter went to the Me To We conference at the Ricoh Colosseum in Toronto. Thirteen lucky students made the trip to the big city to attend this inspirational event. Many celebrities were in attendance, like the cast of Degrassi, Tanya Kim, Ben Mulroney, Mia Farrow and others each with an amazing story to tell.

The most exciting part may have been the fact that Craig and Mark Kielburger were also there. It was amazing to here speeches made by the people who started this wonderful foundation. This year's challenge (to build 100 schools) was also launched at the event.

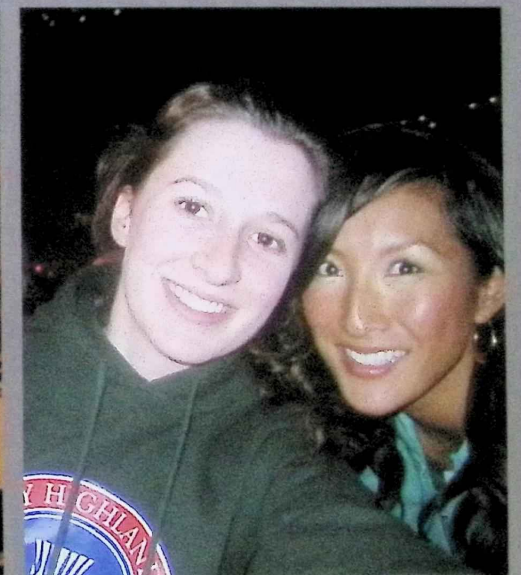

The team came back inspired, with the goal of building another school in mind, as well as the desire to spread the ME to WE philosophy.

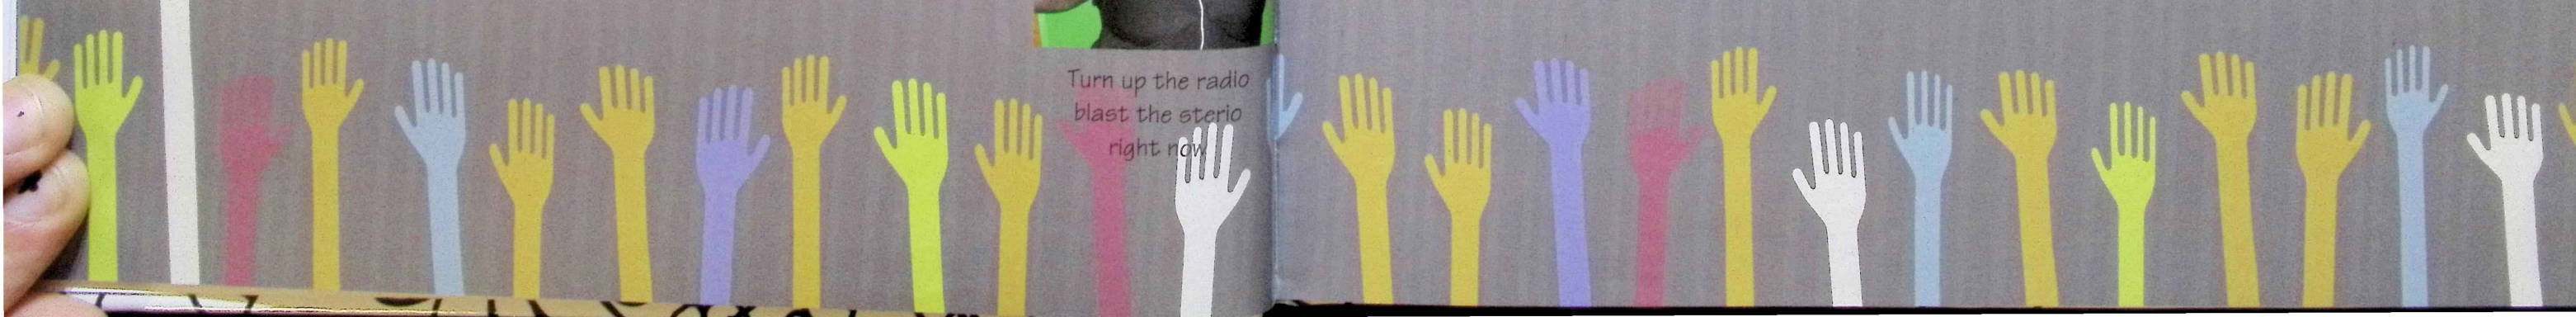

Hundreds were in attendance

ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Life Between Achievers

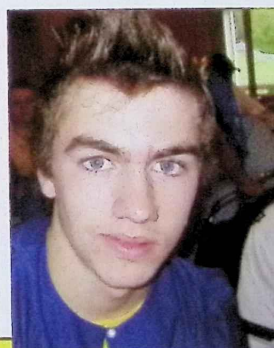

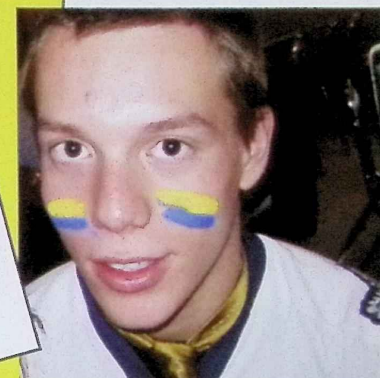

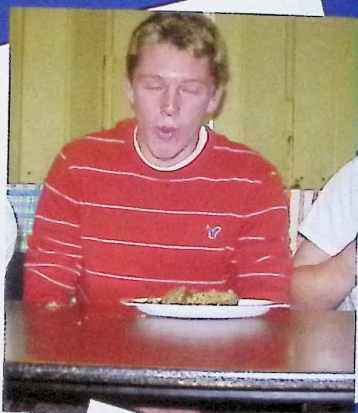

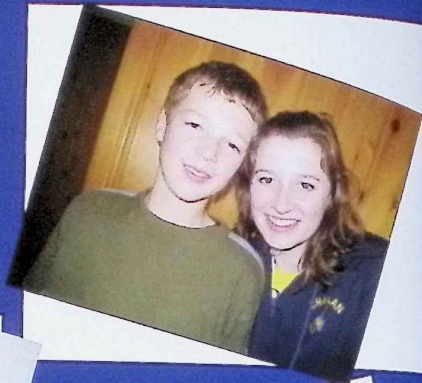

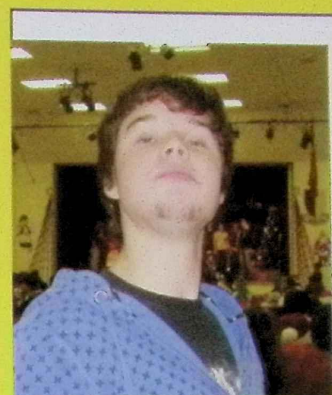

It starts in a town far from here,
Where a group of Crusaders go year after year.
They pack their bags and leave Williamstown,
To go to the camp with the best spirit around.
Day 1, Day 2, Day 3 they are gone.
They drive all the way up always singing a song.
Some blue ones, some gold ones,
Some tall ones, some short ones.
These Crusaders come here to yell and to cheer.
They make some great stories year after year.
This is their camp,
This is Crusader Quest!

Dear Crusaders,

It's hard to believe that another year at Char-Lan DHS has come to an end! I would like to take this opportunity to express how honoured I am to have served as your Student Council President. I hope that each and every one of you have enjoyed this year at Char-Lan. I would like to thank all of the members of Student Council for their hard work and contribution to the quality of your school year. Thank-you to Kaitlin Proudfoot and her fundraising committee, Emily Seebruch and her Spirit committee, Brittany MacDonald and her media committee, and Maggie Lang and Jessica MacDonald and their social events committee. You've all contributed so much to making this school year fun and exciting for everyone and you should be very proud. Thank-you to our teacher advisors, Mr.D, Mrs. Vanderburg and Mrs. David. I truly appreciate all that you have done for student council. Thank-you to the staff for putting up with our crazy ideas and all of our activities! I would also like to thank Mr. Danaher and Mr. Fielding for their constant support of student council and all that we do.

To my fellow Crusaders, thank-you for your support, enthusiasm and your amazing spirit! Without your enthusiasm there would be no spirit days or fun activities like Carnival Week. Good luck to the future Student Council President, and I hope that you will enjoy your year as President as I have mine.

Yearbook

Another year has come and gone and the Yearbook committee has worked hard to preserve all of your memories. I would like to thank Hannah, Marissa, Liz, and Keriann for showing up every Monday and for their hard work in putting together Char-Lan's first ever full colour Yearbook. I would also like to thank Greg Blythe, our amazing Jostens representative and Mr. Fielding, our Yearbook advisor. We hope that you appreciate all the hard work and dedication that we have put into this year's Yearbook. We hope that we have achieved our goal of capturing your memories for years to come.

Extracurriculars are alive and well at Char-Lan as always. Many students find their niche in our wide variety of clubs and activities. OSAID sells candy-grams and lollipops to fundraise so their annual speaker will attend Char-Lan. Free the Children raises awareness about world issues and helps children help children, this year they are building a school. The Chess Club ventures out to tournaments and represents. Both Ecoschools and Envirothon protect the local environment and develop new and innovative ways to keep our school green. This year a new group, SASS, emerged which calls upon all of the musicians in Char-Lan to come on out and show off their musical talent. Spirit Squad is always holding together our sports events and cheering on their fellow crusaders. Prom committee managed to throw together fantastic events that will be remembered for years to come. The Improv team did extraordinarily well, with the senior team winning the Improv Games, and the junior team winning the conciliatory round.

Have You Ever?

We said we'd keep it between us, but we lied

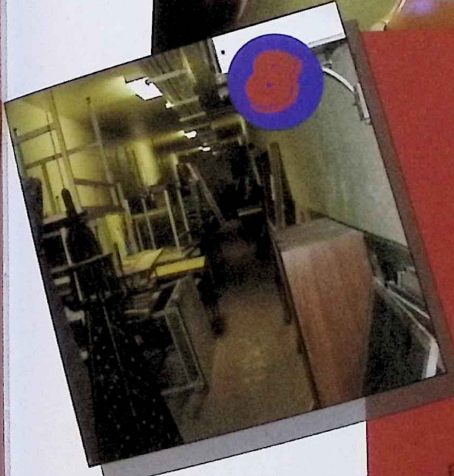

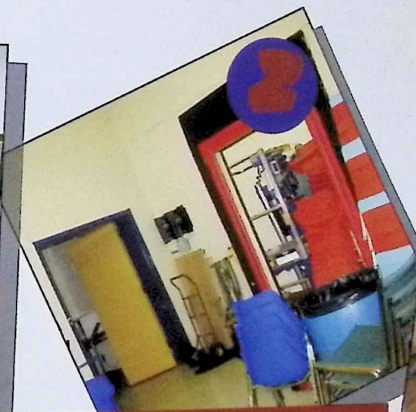

So, this year we decided to spice things up and do a school wide poll. We asked each and every one of you to answer some questions (truthfully if you can imagine it). What this allows us to do is see just how many of you do things that you're either a) not allowed to do, or b) should have tried. The moral of the story is ... well, there is not really anything valuable to be learned here, kind of like math class.

Check Out Some Of The Answers We Got!

Have You Ever Jumped Off Finney's Bridge? "7", "Can't say I have", "Can't Remember?", "For Suicidal Purposes, Yes"
 Have You Ever Skipped Class? "ALWAYS", "16", "Can't Say I Have, I'm A Model Student"
 Have You Ever Had A Detention? "Perhaps", "What Kind Of Question Is That", "13"
 Have You Ever Read Every Word In The Yearbook? "Doubt It", "2", "Ummm...Have You?"

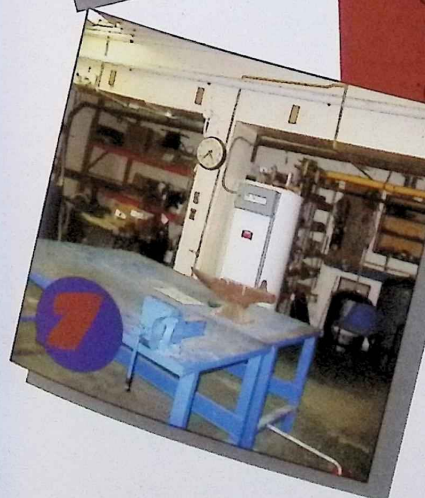

School Wide Results	Have you ever had a detention?	Have you ever read every word in the yearbook?	Have you ever skipped class?	Have you ever jumped off Finney's Bridge?
	67%	19%	66%	38%
	YES	YES	YES	YES
	33%	81%	34%	62%
	NO	NO	NO	NO

Have you ever... been all over Char-Lan.

Well, we have. See if you can guess these previously unconquered locations.

Cancer Awareness Week

Krystie, Kellie, and Violet show off their pink!

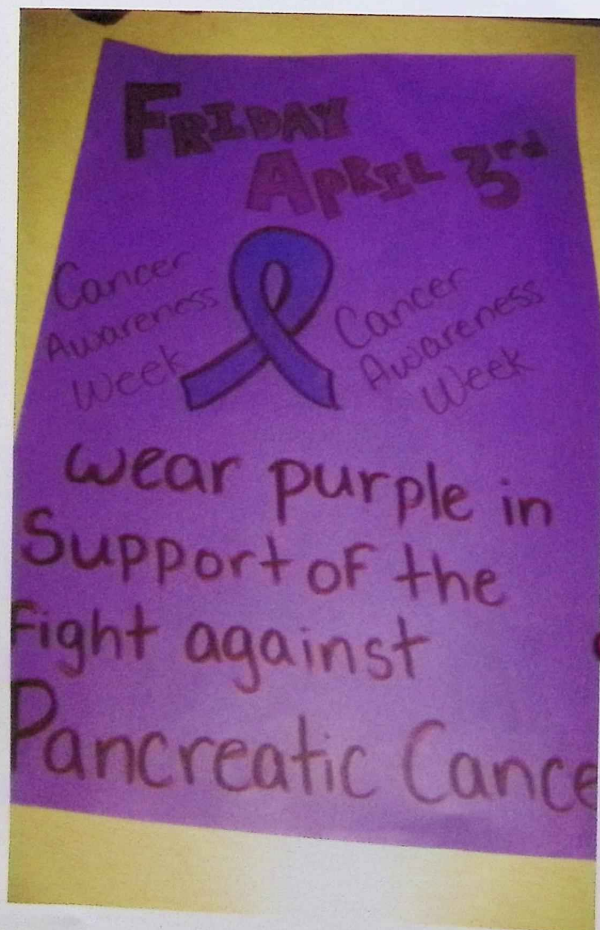

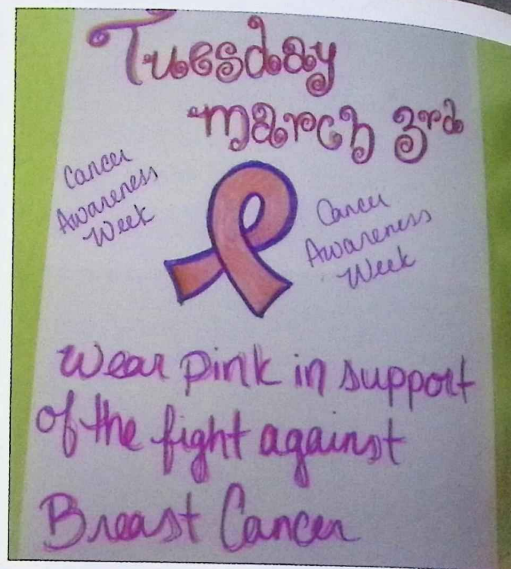

Taylor and Alicia are happy as can be wearing their yellow to support Childhood Cancer.

Kayla takes time out of her busy day to pose for a purple picture.

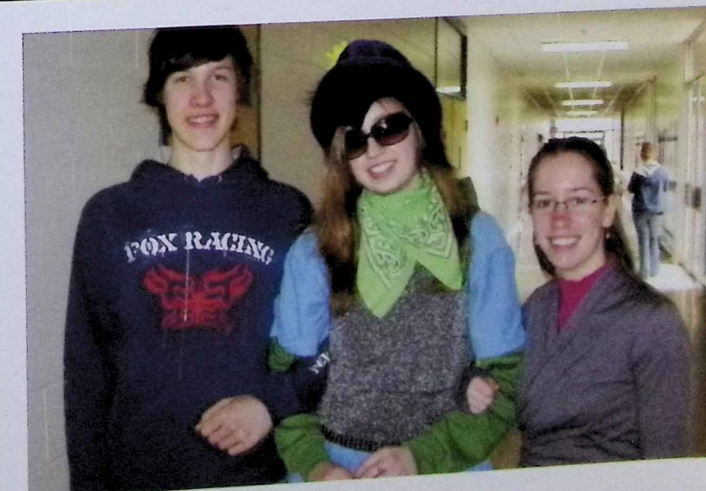

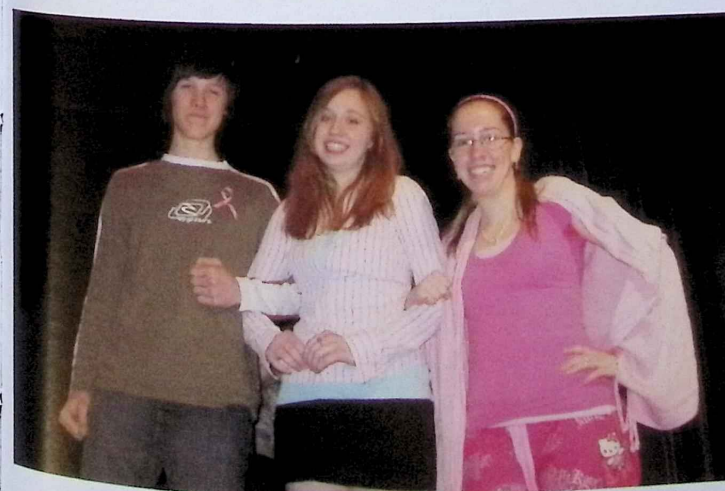

Crusaders took part in a week to help the fight against cancer. They kicked it off with cancer survivor guest speaker, Ivan LeBell. On Tuesday Crusaders wore their pink to support breast cancer and a student auction took place. Childhood cancer was represented by the golden Crusaders on Wednesday and purple was seen on Thursday to support the fight against pancreatic cancer. On Friday the highest bidders received the fruits of their support during the student auction.

THINK PINK FOR BREAST CANCER!
THINK GOLD FOR CHILDHOOD CANCER!
THINK PURPLE FOR PANCREATIC CANCER!

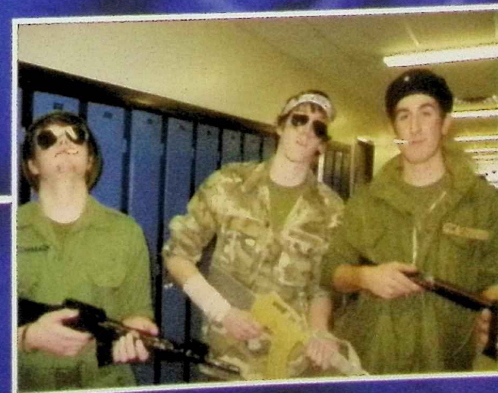

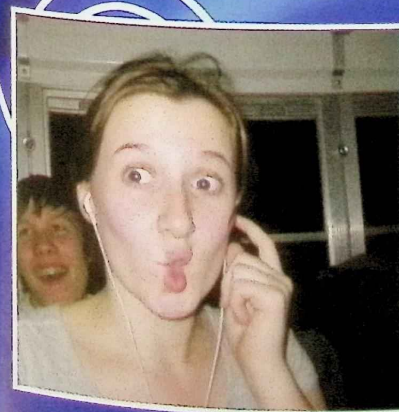

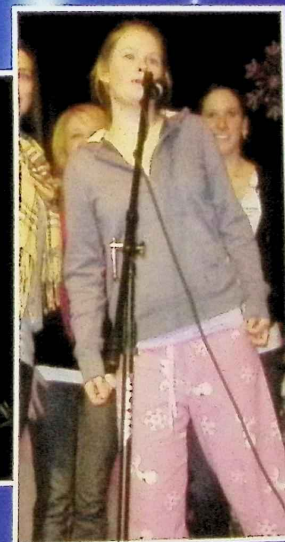

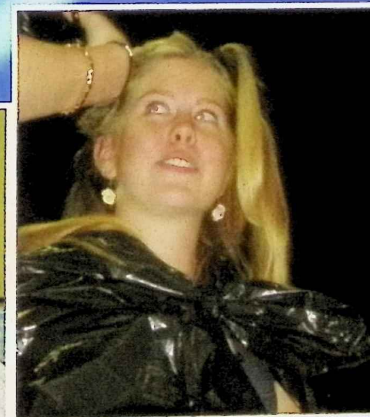

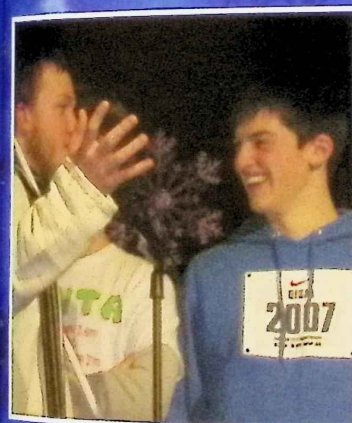

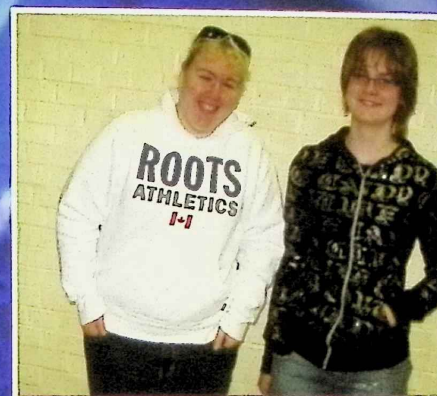

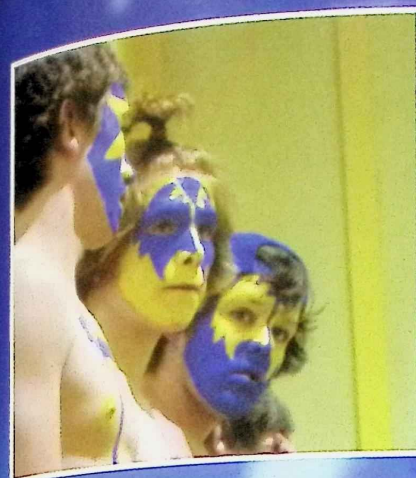

Below>> Matt and Shauna host the Student Auction.
Left>> These lovely ladies take a second out of their busy day to take a picture.

BEFORE AND AFTER

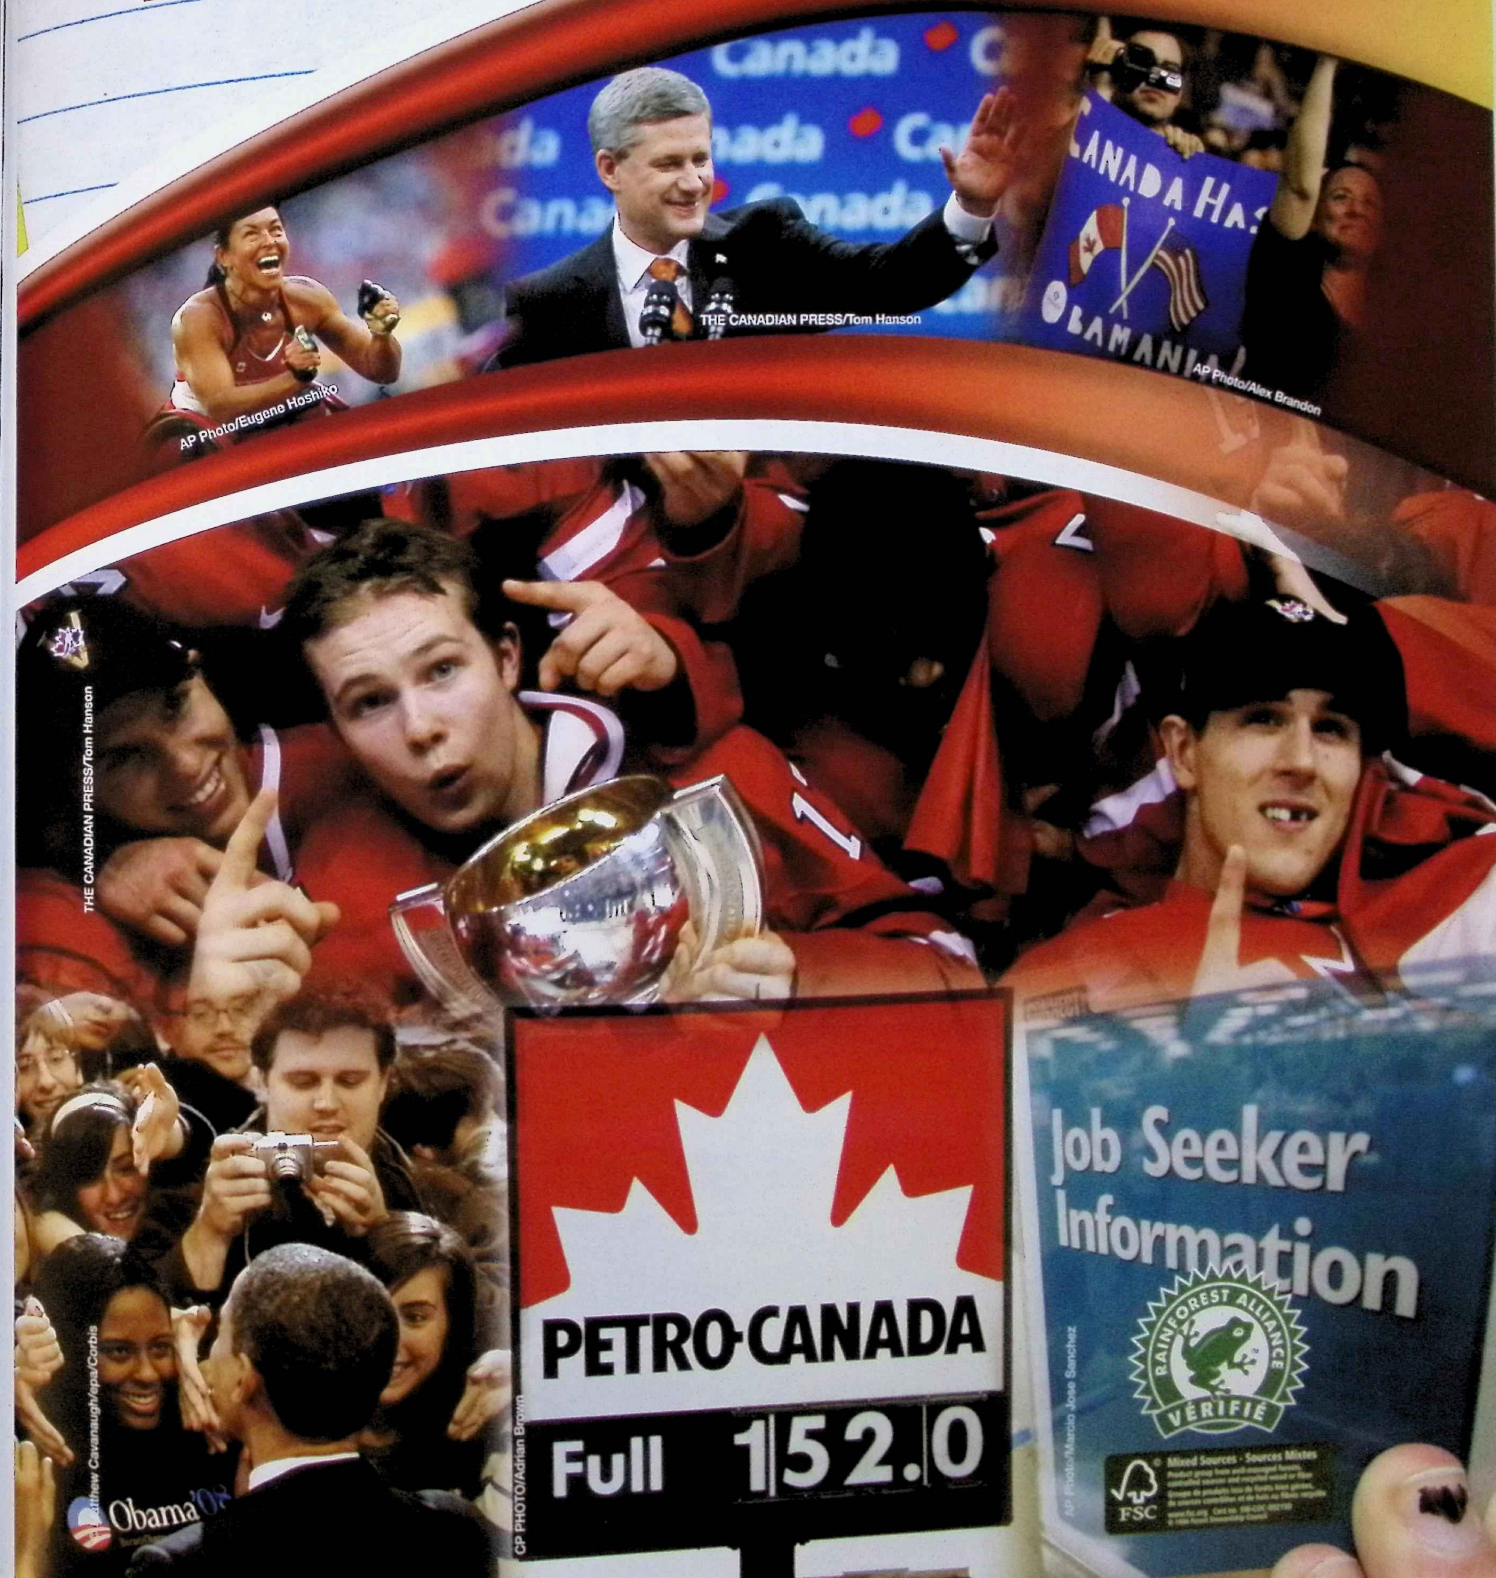

Emily Seebruch was sold to Grant Vander Burg and Amy Derochie. Check out the crazy get up they made her wear all day while carrying their books to class and eating lunch with them.

2008: A Year In Politics

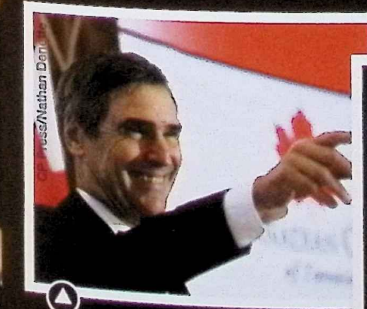

A Second Term for Harper

After an unprecedented constitutional drama, a federal election is called and on November 14, 2008 Stephen Harper secures a second minority government.

Gov. Gen. Michaëlle Jean grants Prime Minister Harper's request to suspend (prorogue) Parliament.

NDP leader Jack Layton, Liberal leader Stéphane Dion and Bloc leader Gilles Duceppe sign a coalition in an effort to replace the minority Conservative government.

Michael Ignatieff replaces Stéphane Dion as federal leader of the Liberal Party.

Jean Charest becomes the first Quebec premier in more than half a century to win three consecutive mandates.

59.1% of Canadians voted in the Federal Election, the lowest since 2004. Only 56.5% of voters cast ballots in Quebec's provincial election.

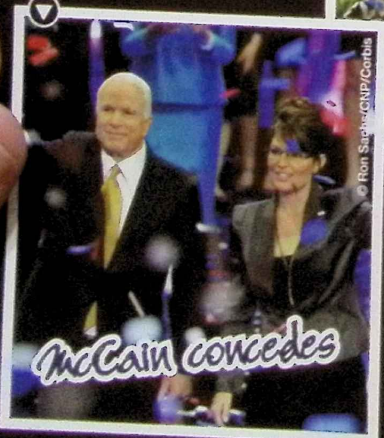

Foreign Affairs Minister Maxime Bernier resigns over a security breach involving classified NATO documents left at the home of former girlfriend, Julie Couillard.

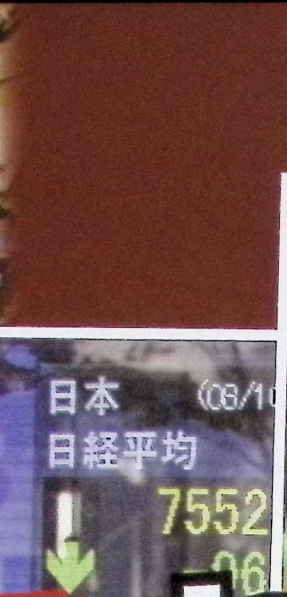

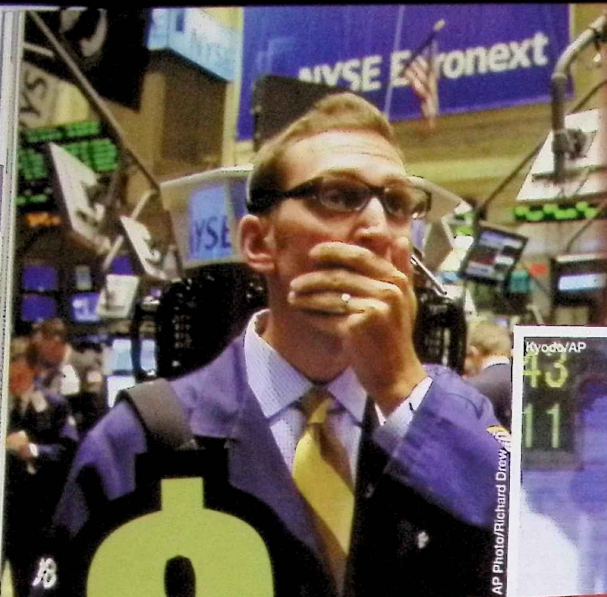

Barack Obama follows a presidential tradition and heads to Canada for his first international visit.

Arizona senator, John McCain, wins the Republican nomination for president and names Alaska Governor, Sarah Palin as his running mate. Palin is the Party's first female nominee for vice president.

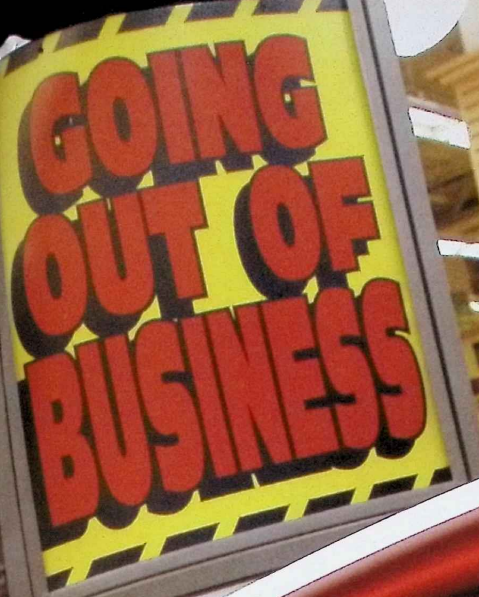

Celebrations Around the World

$Economic Crisis

Financial markets around the world plummet and contribute to the greatest economic crisis since the Great Depression.

Many retailers are forced to file for bankruptcy or go out of business. The number of consumer bankruptcies in Canada soared 50.6% from a year earlier. While bankruptcies were filed across the nation, Alberta was among the highest with a 106% increase in filings.

Family time increases

Unemployment rate hits 26-year high in January 2009

Due to high rates of unemployment and overall hard economic times, sociologists report that families are spending more time at home, resulting in an increased quality of family life. Canadian food prices rose 7.4% in November; the largest hike since 1986.

Finance Minister Jim Flaherty presented a spending blueprint that projects almost $85 billion in deficits by 2013; Canada's first deficit in 11 years.

The 'big three' automakers, GM, Ford and Chrysler request and are eventually offered a bailout package of over $17 billion from the U.S. and $4 billion from Canada.
